

Sue Heimer

Sue is a wife, mother, writer, and international speaker. She has had nine years of training with Bible Study Fellowship where she served in Leadership. A graduate of C.L.A.S.S. speaker services as well as She Speaks by Proverbs 31 Ministries, Sue has been leading and teaching women to know and fall in love with God's word for over ten years.

In 2003 Sue founded Breakfast and Bible, a before school bible study for teens and Leaving Your Legacy, a ministry to support and encourage mothers to make a difference in the lives of their families. She has had the privilege to speak at Hearts at Home international conferences and is a frequent contributing author to Focus on the Family.

Sue is a dynamic and inspirational speaker who challenges thousands of women each year at conferences, retreats, and conventions both large and small.

Since she was a little girl, Sue loved Jesus and loved to tell stories. God has combined those two passions to create a communicator with great energy, passion, humor, warmth, and grace!

Sue brings life-changing messages to her audiences. Whether sharing riveting stories about her marriage to the love of her life, Curt, or the trials, triumphs, frustrations, and successes of raising four sons.

Sue and Curt praise God for nearly 26 years of marriage. They enjoy traveling, Chinese food and a good cup of decaf coffee. Her family makes their home in Colfax, Illinois.

"Sue is the 'real deal' both on and off the stage. Her stories made us see her as a woman we can relate with. Our ladies just loved her and they left inspired, challenged and encouraged in their lives as mothers, wives, friends and most importantly their relationship with Jesus Christ."
